REPORTS/PAPERS

The title of a freestanding report, paper or statement should be enclosed in quotation marks, not italicised. The same goes for the title of a webpage. However, the name of an interactive online database – like the UN Population Division’s World population prospects: 2004 revision population database – is more analogous to a book title and should be italicised.

REFERENCE TO EMAILS

E-mail messages and telephone calls should be cited as below:

Telephone communication with B Xhosa on 28 July 2006.

When an author or article is cited, provide full information, eg Human Rights Watch ‘The death penalty debate’ 21 February http://................. (accessed 31 March 2007).

B. CROSS-REFERENCING

Footnotes referring to earlier footnotes should lead with the author’s surname (not her initials and surname as in the first reference) or the abbreviated name of a case or authorless policy document:

Viljoen (n 16 above) 12-13.
Grootboom (n 17 above) para 99.

In order to avoid redundancy, an exception to this rule should be made when the sentence to which the footnote attaches includes a reference to the author, case, or document. In such cases, the format below should be used:

n 16 above, 12-13.
n 17 above, para 99.

Note that a comma should set off the page or paragraph reference in this last format but not in the format above.

SUBSEQUENT REFERENCE TO CASES

First reference in text: In the well-known case of Grootboom v Minister of Housing (Grootboom case)
Thereafter: The Grootboom case

C. OTHER STYLE GUIDELINES

ABBREVIATIONS

- Abbreviations are generally not used in the text. (Exceptions: Madala J, Chaskalson P)
• Acronyms, abbreviated form – write term in full the first time, eg United Nations (UN) (no ‘…’, or ‘hereafter’ or ‘later cited as’)
• ‘for example’ (in text); use ‘eg’ only in footnotes
• Use para and paras in footnotes, full out in text
• Use sec and secs, art and arts in footnotes, full out in text
• Use abbreviations in footnotes such as ‘eg’

• Avoid capital letters; only use for proper names and specifics, such as England, Constitutional Court
• Reference to a specific court: High Court, Constitutional Court: The Court held … (but courts will not interfere …)
• Reference to a specific Constitution (the South African Constitution; the Constitution of Nigeria); but generic constitutions
• Reference to a specific Bill of Rights (the Bill of Rights in the South African Constitution), but the bills of rights contained in African constitutions

DATE FORMAT

FOOTNOTES

- Full stops after footnotes
- First line of footnote is indented; other lines aligned left
- No ibid, supra, etc
- Footnotes start with capitals, except if they start with ‘n’ (note) eg ‘n 17 above’
- As far as possible, use abbreviations (without full stops) eg para, paras, sec, secs, art, arts, ch, etc
- If more than one source is cited in a footnote, list them chronologically (unless no dates, then alphabetically); separate sources with ‘;’
- No ‘paragraphs’ in footnotes
- Use ‘&’ when referring to articles and authors (arts 1 & 2; De Waal & Currie; Grootboom & Others v Minister …); use ‘and’ in full sentences
- Journals are not abbreviated – provide full title, eg not JAC, but Journal of African Law
- Authors: two authors, both names in full (&) with initials; more than two authors, use et al
- When referring to earlier footnote reference, no initial (Heyns n 2 above)
- Use ‘as above’ only when reference is exactly as in preceding footnote; otherwise ‘n 33 above, 45’.

HEADINGS

Headings – do not use initial capital letters

HEADING LEVELS

1 Introduction (bold; font 14 pitch)
1.1 The South African experience (bold; font 12 pitch)
1.1.1 The position in Nigeria (bold; font 12 pitch)
Subsequent sub-headings: no numbering, italics

NUMERALS

- 1 – 10 written out (one, ten); above 10: figures (14, 32) except at start of sentence (Forty-five soldiers were killed …)
- Ordinals:
  In text: first, second, twenty-ninth, etc, but 2nd session of Commission, 29th session of Commission
  In footnotes: 1st, 2nd, 29th (no superscript, eg 29th)
- Thousands: 25 000 (not 25,000 – space, not comma)
- Numbers should be separated by a hyphen and a space placed on each side of the hyphen:

  150 000 - 290 000, not 150 000–290 000 or 150 000 – 290 000
15 - 49, not 15-49, 15–49 or 15 – 49
21.2 - 45.3%, not 21.2-45.3%, 21.2–45.3% or 21.2 – 45.3%

PUNCTUATION

- Avoid punctuation marks where possible
- No full stop after Mr, Prof, Dr, etc
- During 2003, the United Nations ....
- Quotations: ‘... ‘ in South Africa ‘...’ (no full stop after ‘)
- Footnote reference in text: … in South Africa.⁶ (footnote number after full stop or comma); also when quote ends: … in South Africa.⁶
- Avoid /, rather use ‘or’
- Bullets: If followed by full sentences, initial capital and full stop after each; if not full sentences, no initial cap and ‘;’ after each.

PARENTHESIS

Parenthetical text should be set off by dashes as below:
- Certain infringements that would simply not be capable of justification in terms of section 36(1) – infringements that occur in terms of simple state conduct, for example, unrelated to any law of general application – can be justified in terms of the reasonableness test that applies to the qualified rights.

Each of the following examples is incorrect:
- Certain infringements that would simply not be capable of justification in terms of section 36(1) - infringements that occur in terms of simple state conduct, for example, unrelated to any law of general application - can be justified in terms of the reasonableness test that applies to the qualified rights.
- Certain infringements that would simply not be capable of justification in terms of section 36(1)—infringements that occur in terms of simple state conduct, for example, unrelated to any law of general application—can be justified in terms of the reasonableness test that applies to the qualified rights.

PARAGRAPHING

The first paragraph starts aligned.
Subsequent paragraphs are indented.
Paragraphs under indented quotes are also aligned.
Top of page remains indented if paragraph should ordinarily be indented

QUOTATIONS

Quotes longer than 30 words must be indented (on left hand side, not on right hand side), for example:

The challenge of building one nation and one economy in which all South Africans may participate and from which all may benefit remains a major challenge for the short, medium and perhaps even long term.

For indented quotes, use font 10 pitch.
Indented quotes do not have quotation marks.
The footnote sign should usually precede the indented quote, unless the indented quote forms part of a sentence, which ends at the end of the quote; then the footnote sign comes at the end of the quotation.

In quoted text, American spelling should not be changed to British spelling. The same goes for the title of a cited work. However, the name of an organisation should be spelled according to British norms regardless of how the organisation chooses to spell its own name. Thus, World Health Organization should be changed to World Health Organisation.

QUOTATION MARKS

Always use single quotes, unless it is a quote within a quote (then double quotes).

SPACING

Article 27(2) - no space before (2)

SPELLING OF SPECIFIC WORDS

UK English – ‘s’ instead of ‘z’ – organisation, not organization acknowledgment (not acknowledgement)
co-operation
healthcare (not health care)
judge
judgment (not judgement)
licence licensing
practice (noun)
practise (verb)
Shari’a
state party/parties (not states parties)

USE OF BRACKETS

Rather use commas that brackets for parenthesis.

USE OF BOLD

Avoid.

USE OF FOREIGN TERMS

- Try to avoid – replace with modern English term, instead of supra rather use ‘above’
- If used, use italics: eg inter alia, status quo

USE OF HYPHENS

anti-retroviral bilateral (not bi-lateral)
case-law
claw-back clauses
co-operation
Dar es Salaam
decision making (but decision-making process)
extrajudicial
HIV positive (but HIV-positive status) intergovernmental mother-to-child-transmission multilateral (not multi-lateral)
Secretary-General
subregion/subregional
subsection
Vice-Chairperson

USE OF ITALICS

- Always use italics for:
  - titles of journals, books, newspaper names, cases
  - foreign words, unless acknowledged as part of English, and unless part of or in a quotation
  - emphasis (… opinions on the compatibility of domestic laws …) – add ‘my emphasis’ or ‘our emphasis’ in footnote (use sparingly)
- Italics should not be used for legislation and treaties.

Marks used in the correction of proofs

The Iliad ends with the funeral of Hector. In itself, this ending is a striking conclusion to a poem whose chief hero is Achilles. Simultaneously, it is the completion of a theme which dominates the last third of the epic, the treatment and especially the maltreatment of the dead.

This theme pertains most immediately to the major figures, Achilles, Hector, and Patroclus; but by the end of the poem it includes nearly all the main characters.

To some degree, as we shall see, it also guides the rhythm of the narrative in the last eight books.

The Homeric art of composition consists in large part in manipulation of standard motifs and recurrent formulaic details.
