Resilient cities 2: cities and adaptation to climate change, proceedings of the Global Forum 2011

by Resilient Cities Congress (Bonn, Germany), Konrad Otto-Zimmermann

Despite the cynicism of skeptics, climate change really is happening, and its effects will be most pronounced in cities. Many are vulnerable to small rises in sea level, while urbanisation i… Read More

Accredited journals
Accredited Journals

Accredited journals are recognized research output which meet specified criteria and therefore qualify for subsidisation by the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET). To receive subsidy or recognition for an article you have written, you should select a journal which is accredited from one of the lists below.

Please note: Listed below are the official lists from the Department of Higher Education and Training, as supplied by the UP Department of Research and Innovation Support.

Lists acknowledged by the DHET

2019 Lists

Predatory publications

Predatory Journals Home

This guide aims to assist in identifying and avoiding predatory journals.

What are Predatory Journals?

Predatory open-access publishing is an exploitative open-access academic publishing business model that involves charging publication fees to authors without providing the editorial and publishing services associated with legitimate journals (open access or not).

(https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Predatory_open-access_publishing, accessed on 08/05/2016)

How do I Identify a Predatory Journal?

The Department of Higher Education and Training have already compiled a list of Accredited Journals for your convenience:

http://www.library.up.ac.za/journals/journalsaccredited.htm

If a journal does not appear in this list, check the link below on how to identify a predatory journal:
